"Dads Who Make An Impact"

Matthew 3:13-4:4

Speaking Today: Pastor Norm Schwab

You may discount it, ignore it or not believe it's really there, but God has given fathers a unique power. It can be used for destruction or construction. How can we be a dad that makes a difference in the lives of our children?

1. Use the power of your _____ to pour blessing into your kids.
2. Help your kids discover their true _____ and purpose.
3. Be intentional to _____ them for the future.

Next Step:

- Write down three things you could affirm in your son or daughter. Tell them around the dinner table today.
- Affirm your sons growing character traits in front of several other men.
- Take your daughter on a date and pour your affirming love into her. Point out her attractive qualities and gifts you see in her. (hint: no matter how tempting . . . no constructive life coaching on this evening)
- Take kids on a backpack trip and just listen to their heart.
- Plan a "becoming a man/woman" ceremony.
