Ice Breaker:

What is the scariest movie you have ever watched? What was so frightening about it? What does that say about you?

Read: Nehemiah 6:10-19

1. How was Nehemiah able to discern Shemaiah was speaking false prophesy? How can you decide from a God-given warning and those that are deceptive?

2. What would have happened if Nehemiah had given in to fear? What lie was Nehemiah tempted to believe?

3. Share a story of when God has helped you to overcome something or strengthened you to take a huge step of faith.

4. In what life area have you recently made huge strides even victories, and sense being so close to wholeness, but . . . you are now tempted to slide right back into past habits, old relationships. What will keep you on track and finishing well?

5. To begin your prayer this evening, go around the group and share one thing that God says is your identity.

“ Most Dangerous Temptation ”

Nehemiah 6:10-19

I want to see God at work. I want to see Him doing things in my life that even the enemy has to admit . . . could only be a ‘God thing’. Yet I wonder how often I miss out in seeing God at work because I give into my fears, my temptations and fail to trust? Do you want to step out into the wild adventure of faith in God? If so, expect to be opposed, but also expect to be surprised by God.

1. Watch out! (verses 10-14, 17-19)

2. Remember who you are. (verses 10-11)
  - A. Know your mission.

  - B. Know God’s truth.

3. Watch God at work. (verses 15, 16)

Next Step:

What are you attempting in your life right now that can only be accomplished if God is in it?
