"One Hand in the Cookie Jar"
Ephesians 5:3-7

Speaking Today: Pastor Norm Schwab

God wants us to enjoy clean holiness and the freeing power to live rightly. But, in reality, we don't live like free people. We feel stuck, discouraged, even apathetic, especially in the area of sexual morality. The Bible passage this morning brings clarity to our confused thinking, explaining why sexual distortions are incompatible with the Christian life. We need to think (and then also act) differently to keep from missing out on God's very best for us.

1. Sex is good.
2. Relationship killers. (verses 3-4)
3. Serious examination. (verses 5-7)
4. The RX. (verse 4b)

Next Step:

If you are going to starve your mind from something harmful, you must feed it with something life-giving. What specifically is God calling you to starve? What will you feed your heart? (remember it's not about a determination to try harder this time . . . it's about living in keeping with who you now are, your identity in Christ.)
