"DON'T WASTE YOUR LIFE" (John Piper)

John Piper writes, "I will tell you what a tragedy is. I will show you how to waste your life. Consider this story from the February 1998 Reader's Digest: A couple 'took early retirement from their jobs in the Northeast five years ago when he was 59 and she was 51. Now they live in Punta Gorda, Florida, where they cruise on their 30-foot trawler, play softball and collect shells. . . .' Picture them before Christ at the great day of judgment: 'Look, Lord. See my shells.' That is a tragedy.

"God created us to live with a single passion to joyfully display his supreme excellence in all the spheres of life. The wasted life is the life without this passion. God calls us to pray and think and dream and plan and work not to be made much of, but to make much of him in every part of our lives."

Most people slip by in life without a passion for God, spending their lives on trivial diversions, living for comfort and pleasure, and perhaps trying to avoid sin. This book will warn you not to get caught up in a life that counts for nothing. It will challenge you to live and die boasting in the cross of Christ and making the glory of God your singular passion. If you believe that to live is Christ and to die is gain, read this book, learn to live for Christ, and don't waste your life!

DEVOTIONAL

"A Guide for the Prize"

by Sharon L. Reidenbac

We're a family of track and field athletes: husband, daughter and two grandsons. The Lord's analogy of how to live a triumphal life through the merits of track is spot on.

"Let us lay aside every weight." (Hebrews 12: 1, NKJV)

In his day, my husband's records were good. But the new generation desired better. Their coach encouraged them "not to lose heart." A new manufacturer had arrived with revolutionary ideas: feather weight shoes and tighter, lighter gear. However, it would cost them. For success, they'd have to accept and trust the manufacturer's guidelines: give up debilitating habits, clean out their lockers and dare to live differently.

" . . . and the sin which so easily ensnares us." (Heb. 12:1)

You can't run successfully when caught in a tight pack with feet entangled in disobedience. You'll find yourself up close and personal with the track in failure. "They stumble, being disobedient to the Word." (1 Peter 2:8)

"And let us run with endurance the race set before us." (verse 1)

Ever hear of runner's "burn?" Those dedicated to finishing well, experience muscles screaming for relief from the trials, hard work and unimanageable courses set before them. "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." (11 Timothy 4:7).

"Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith." (verse 2).

Getting sidetracked with a glance to the stands, over the shoulder or at the field events, costs valuable seconds. But professionals recognize what detains them personally from doing their best. "I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 3:14)

"Who for the joy that was set before [Jesus] endured the cross despising the shame." (verse 2) "He who endured such hostility; lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls." (verse 3).

Runners meet at various venues; sadly hostilities happen. But this is no time for thin-skinned people. One has to trust the coach's instructions and have faith in the manufacturer's equipment that will withstand suffering and degrading conflicts. "But one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead." (Philippians 3:13)

" . . . a cloud of witnesses." (verse 1)

The testimonies of those who competed in the race of life give us the stamina to not quit or give up, as the last lap might be our best! They knew the Coach and Manufacturer promised something better. "Others run for a perishable prize, we run for the imperishable crown." (1 Corinthians 9:25).

The Christian life is not a stroll. Yes, God pulls us off the "track" at times for refreshment to strengthen and encourage us. But with each step, we're never alone. Our Head Coach and Manufacturer is there to provide the best strategies for encountering a life to finish well . . . to claim the golden Crown of . . . "Forever."
