HEAVEN by Randy Alcorn . . . Have you ever wondered . . .

What is Heaven really going to be like? What will we look like? What will we do? Won't Heaven get boring after awhile? In the most comprehensive & definitive book on Heaven to date, Randy invites you to picture Heaven the way Scripture describes it. God has put eternity in our hearts. Now, Randy Alcorn brings eternity to light in a way that will surprise you, spark your imagination and change how you live today. This book is about real people with real bodies enjoying close relationships with God and each other, eating, drinking, working, playing, traveling, worshipping and discovering on a New Earth. Earth as God created it. Earth as He intended.

NORTHVIEW'S DEVOTIONAL

"Watch Out For Candy-Coated Praise"

by Sharon Reidenbach

A friend called sharing the extreme difficulty she felt over her daughter. "I'm fine, no problem," she began. "Praise God this will pass." Then she cried, "No, Sharon, I'm not fine. I feel utterly rejected by her." I listened and cried with her.

Later she wrote, "I'm restored to the Lord. I truthfully bore my heart before Him. Then I could openly praise Him, not for the problem, but how He provided you, at the right moment, to hear my heart." She'd looked beyond the situation.

And I remember a difficult time when lying in a hospital bed: Nothing praise-worthy here. But the afternoon sun began reflecting off the windows of another building; that's how Jesus reflects God back to us. Praise God, His hand is here, right now, all the time! Refreshed, I could look to a higher plain of praise.

Why do we try to candy-coat our deepest hurts before the Lord and others? Who taught us to praise God when our home burned down or for a debilitating illness rather than . . . "I'm not happy about this but, thank you, God, everyone is safe; thank you, Lord, for those who help me every day."

Where did we learn to swallow our fears – our youth? A youth pastor, from Charles Swindoll's church, gave we parents sound advice in what NOT to say when your teen or a friend had a bad day: Never say, "It's nothing, grow up." or "You're bigger than this, don't worry, those other kids don't know up from down." And, "Buck up, you've got a lot going for you." or the worst of all, "You shouldn't be upset." The teen's emotions aren't validated; thinks him/herself worthless, put-down, like their feelings don't matter.

Instead, first acknowledge the pain: "Ya, the day does sound crummy." or, "I bet it hurt when those things were said about you." For the teen, someone had finally listened and actually heard their fears and that they mattered.

Second, now it's okay to ask, "Hmm, what made this person so angry? What's your thought on how to turn this situation around?"

And God desires honesty too rather than false words and platitudes in hopes to show Him and others that we are above the problem. We can't fool Him . . . "Really," He'd say. "Haven't I told you, 'Come unto Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest?'" (Matthew 11:28) "And didn't I know you from the beginning, 'For You are fearfully and wonderfully made.'" (Psalm 139: 14) Consequently, I know your disappointments, hurts, and sorrows.

Believing these truths frees us to honestly sing praises of love . . . not candy-coated, but those from the heart, viewing the drama of living as seen through His face in others, and His beautiful creation: "Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name." (Romans 12: 1, 2)

Happy Thanksgiving.

AWANA usually has a food drive in November but this year it was decided to have a penny drive to raise funds to help support AWANA clubs that are reaching out to kids around the world. It was a contest between boys and girls and the girls won by $6.75 which granted the girls the privilege of having Dave Burger take a cream pie in the face. When all was said and cleaned up, a total of $172.29 was raised to help share the gospel. Good work kids!

Have you ever thought about doing a mission? We have a local option right here for you. There are 115+ children who need you. We are looking for listeners and people that like to have fun. We are growing and a few more leaders are needed on Wednesday nights for AWANA. If you are interested please call Dave and Courtney Burger, our AWANA commanders, at 466-3108.
