THE REASON FOR MY HOPE by Billy Graham

For more than 70 years Dr. Billy Graham has shared the Gospel with the world. He's presented the truth about Jesus Christ to millions and sought to draw hearts closer to faith.

Now, in what may be his last book, he shares this same life-changing message. In The Reason for My Hope: Salvation, Graham calls the world back to its spiritual priority, to consider our lives now and the hereafter with sober reflection. Filled with new stories and enduring truth, Graham invites all who will, to follow the Savior and discover a faith that saves.

In conjunction with the My Hope America campaign and events in November 2013, millions around the world will be mobilized to invite friends and neighbors to hear the message of Jesus Christ. Join with them and claim Dr. Graham's reason for hope as your own.

Andrew Hyatt's new movie, Paul, Apostle of Christ, is as important to the audience as it is to its creators. "It's a film by people who are very passionate about this story, which isn't always the case with Hollywood films on the Bible," the film's writer and director says. "The message at the heart of this is the idea of love and grace and mercy, these beautiful Pauline themes that we're all so familiar with."

Andrew spoke by phone from Sony facilities in California, where he was putting the final touches on the film. Paul, Apostle of Christ will premiere nationwide on Friday, March 23.

Starring in the film are James Faulkner (Downton Abbey, Game of Thrones) as Paul, Jim Caviezel (The Passion of the Christ, Person of Interest) as Luke, Olivier Martinez (S.W.A.T.) as a Roman prefect, Joanne Whalley (A.D.—The Bible Continues) as Priscilla, and John Lynch (The Secret Garden) as Aquila.

Andrew said he never wanted to make any Christian films.

"I was very clear about that," he says. "But I had a very strong reconversion to the faith. It was like God saying, 'How could you not tell these stories?' I'm grateful and humble to be a part of that, to be able to tell such great stories about these incredible figures."

Paul was a challenge to write, Andrew says, calling the apostle's life story "massive."

"He lived about 10 lives," Andrew says. "I knew we couldn't do an A-to-Z Paul story. That would be better served as a 10-part miniseries."

"But the writer-director kept coming back to who Paul was at the end of his, life while awaiting execution in Rome playing off 2 Timothy 4:11, where Paul writes, "Only Luke is with me." Andrew asked "Who was that Paul?"

This is about 66, 67 A.D. He's awaiting execution and Luke comes sneaking into Rome, trying to bring some joy to Paul," Andrew says. "We came out with this beautiful Paul being able to share in his last days his story. We're able to kind of say this is where the Acts of the Apostles was inspired."

Andrew and his crew also strove to make a movie that not only looks authentic as first-century Rome but feels authentic spiritually.

"We never wanted any moment that felt preachy," he says. "Everything has an authenticity to it. When you hear Paul's words and what he wrote, the violence of Nero, when you hear them in the context of what these early Christians were going through, it's hard to argue these aren't things that hit us all deeply. Don't we all want to feel that there's something bigger and greater than us Who loves us? These are things that touch our deepest kind of humanity, whether you're Christian or not. I think that anybody can see this film and think about their faith or non-faith, and hopefully feel encouraged to pursue the faith more."

Andrew encourages believers to take non-Christian friends to the film.

"Bring people you may be uncomfortable sharing the Gospel with," he says. "As much as it's about our faith, it's a great story. It's an opportunity to open a dialogue. I really believe it'll cause people to think deeply about where they're at in life."

Pastor Norm meets monthly with several other pastors and they have been praying for the project for a year.

NOTE TO PARENTS:
The film is rated PG-13 for the roman violence and may not be suitable for younger children.
