THE RAGAMUFFIN GOSPEL by Brennan Manning

Many believers feel stunted in their Christian growth. We beat ourselves up over our failures and, in the process, pull away from God because we subconsciously believe He tallies our defects and hangs His head in disappointment. In this newly repackaged edition Brennan Manning reminds us that nothing could be further from the truth. The Father beckons us to Himself with a "furious love" that burns brightly and constantly. Only when we truly embrace God's grace can we bask in the joy of a gospel that enfolds the most needy of His flock—the "ragamuffins."

The world assigns value to people using measurable standards. Someone is a successful student if she receives A's. Someone is a strong athlete if he runs five miles a day. The Lord, however, knows nothing of standards. The Ragamuffin Gospel was inspired by Brennan Manning after he discovered firsthand what it means to live by grace instead of performance. His words bring new life and sweet refreshment to Christians who are tired of never measuring up.

DEVOTIONAL

The Real Definition of Submission A Life of Memories

by Sharon Reidenbach

The small lamp gave a warm glow to the room, but his hands felt cool.

Sitting by his bed, Betsy tried to embrace the moments they had left. She hoped and prayed in the recesses of his spirit he'd hear her.

"Hi, Will, it's me, Betsy. The family said, 'rest,' but I couldn't. My mind flooded with memories, and thought, 'why not share those Cinerama shots together'.

Her fingers traced the outline of his face. "The first time I saw you riding your magnificent stallion, my heart leaped right to yours. My little chestnut mare seemed fragile next to your big steed. But it didn't matter. We were hooked. Romantic love filled us leading to a late fall wedding."

Betsy adjusted the blinds capturing the late afternoon light. Looking out she smiled. "Starry-eyed our counseling began with our pastor. But . . ." Betsy quickly sat back down grabbing Will's hand. "But to this day I'm still embarrassed how I flew out of my chair when he read Ephesians 5 and I heard, 'Submit all to your husband!'"

"Oh, how I shouted, 'You mean now I'll have to muck your stallion's stallh plus mine, and whatever else you want?' And what did you do? You wrapped me in your arms and whispered, 'No way.' And I relaxed."

"The pastor reassured me, and us, with Romans 12: 6-8, on how we each bring unique gifts to the marriage table as helpmates. And said it doesn't matter what nationality we are or if we're male or female, for we're all one in Christ. (Galatians 3:28)

"Hard times? With my exuberance and your calm, we had more than our share. But thank you, sweetheart, for your strength in bringing us back to center, our Christ. It's my anchor today."

"How we loved to ride. But you never faulted my abilities in front of our companions. Rather, you'd ask me equestrian questions valuing my opinion."

"And, when the culmination of our deep love arrived, little Ben provided another dimension to the word, 'helpmate!' Then honey, I confess, after Ben graduated from college, I overheard you preparing him for his first job with 1 Peter 2:18 how 'Whether married or a working single, in any capacity, we are submissive servants'. In my heart you stood 9' tall!"

Adjusting his blanket, a tear grazed his face. "And remember," she chuckled, "Our arguments over me learning the finances, investments and insurances? Thankfully you saw my reasoning. Now, as hard as it is, unlike some of my friends who don't know what bill-pay is, I'm prepared—for this next step."

"We had a good ride Will. With God holding the reins, our journey of love, whether up or down, never lost its stride. And—forever—my heart is yours until the end of time."

With the evening dusk, silence filled the room, and she held him.

* * * *

"What greater thing is there for two human souls, than to feel that they are joined for life—to strengthen each other in all labor, to rest on each other in all sorrow, to minister to each other in silent unspeakable memories at the moment of the last parting?"

- George Eliot

MATTERS

REFRIGERATOR NEEDED

We are looking for a refrigerator/freezer for the Staff Work Room. The size needed is 36" x 72". If you have one that you would like to donate, please contact the office at 466-1770.

DRESSES FOR GHANA AND GUATEMALA

Pictured are 74 dresses that will soon be going with missionaries from Northview Bible Church to the schools they sponsor in Africa and Guatemala.

We make the dresses of 100% cotton fabric because they are going to hot climate countries. The dresses are sizes X-LRG, LRG, MED, SML and TODDLER. Lace, buttons and other trim make every dress unique. There are no two alike.

With donations we can continue this program. We can put to use material you bought but never used or a donation of floral, child oriented or patterned material in bright basic or pastel colors which are best. A piece of material several yards long will make multiple dresses. Colorful and pastel Extra Wide Double Fold Bias Tape is used to make the ties. 1/2" woven or knit elastic is used at the top of the dress to help each dress fit. All are needed items. Or with a donation of a few dollars we would buy what's needed.

You're welcome to join those of us that make the dresses. Please call the Rockwood Hawthorne Activities Department (466-0411). Leave your name and phone number and you'll be contacted. It's a fun and encouraging activity.

BICYCLES NEEDED TO BORROW

Tom and Julie Bolser, Northview missionaries with Mission Aviation Fellowship in Indonesia, will be living in Spokane during much of their furlough June 10, 2019-January 5, 2020. Jon and Anita Lewis, Julie's parents, are wondering if anyone at Northview would have 24-inch bicycles to loan the Bolders for their furlough: one girl's bicycle and one boy's bicycle. If so, please call Anita at 509-994-9973 or Jon at 509-981-9871.

6-MONTH HOME FOR SWEET KITTIES

We are moving and our rental does not allow pets. :(We have 2 sweet cats that need a home while we are in transition for 6 months.

Gus Gus is a long-haired maine coon cat who is almost 2 yrs old. He is beautiful, easy and latches on to one person. He does not prefer to be held but to be near you and have you pet his beautiful fur. He is neutered.

Jack Jack is a 6 month old all black, "cross eyed" (his eyes are so black he looks cross eyed when he is a tired, kitty). He would love to be held and coddled all day long. He is truly the sweetest thing.

They are litter box trained and indoor cats. They are not declawed. I would love for them to be housed together, but if that doesn't work out obviously that has to be alright. They would be fine separated.

HISTORIC SPOKANE TOUR

sponsored by Northview's Quilters

Open to ANYONE interested in Spokane history Thursday, June 27, 2019.

Bus loading at Northview at 8:15am

Travel along Rutter Parkway to a segment of vertical rock located along the Little Spokane River that has a stunning remnant of Native American painting. The artwork is found adjacent to a parking lot that is part of the Little Spokane River Natural Area. The site can be viewed in a matter of minutes. Seeing it offers a greater appreciation of the span of history and time along the rivers. It is one of the best historic treasures in the Spokane area.

Then visit Spokane House, a fur-trading post founded in 1810 by the British-Canadian North West Company, located on a peninsula where the Spokane River and Little Spokane River meet. When established, it was the North West Company's farthest outpost in the Columbia River region. Spokane House entered written history on June 14, 1811, when David Thompson arrived with a fresh supply of trade goods. Explore the well-documented Visitor Center and learn about the early history of this area.

Stop at Kendall Yards for lunch on your own at one of the many restaurants. Visit My Fresh Basket, one of the outstanding markets in our area. Travel through Browne's Addition and downtown Spokane to learn about the history and founding fathers and mothers of Spokane. Tour St. John's Cathedral. Take a ride on the Loeff Carrousel in it's new home.

Cost $39.00 per person, plus whatever you decide for lunch.

Sign Up Begin this Sunday in the Foyer.

Sign up deadline is Wednesday, June 19.

If the minimum number of 25 is not met, the tour will be canceled and your money refunded.
