THE FAMILY YOU'VE ALWAYS WANTED by Gary Chapman

Is your family all that it could be? Many feel bombarded by images and experiences of broken families, but this in ow how God intended families to be! So often we examine the traits of unhealthy families, but Gary Chapman paints a biblical portrait of what a loving, stable family looks like. He details five timeless characteristics that create a healthy family environment:

- A heart for service
- Husbands and wives who relate intimately
- Parents who guide their children
- Children who obey and honor their parents
- Husbands who love and lead

In Dr. Chapman's own words, "What happens to your family does make a difference not only to you and your children, but to the thousands of young observers who are in search of a functional family."

DEVOTIONAL

The Real Definition of Submission

A Life of Memories

by

Sharon Reidenbach

The small lamp gave a warm glow to the room, but his hands felt cool.

Sitting by his bed, Betsy tried to embrace the moments they had left. She hoped and prayed in the recesses of his spirit he'd hear her.

"Hi, Will, it's me, Betsy. The family said, "rest," but I couldn't. My mind flooded with memories, and thought, 'why not share those Cinerama shots together'.

Her fingers traced the outline of his face. "The first time I saw you riding your magnificent stallion, my heart leaped right to yours. My little chestnut mare seemed fragile next to your big steed. But it didn't matter. We were hooked. Romantic love filled us leading to a late fall wedding."

Betsy adjusted the blinds capturing the late afternoon light. Looking out she smiled. "Starry-eyed our counseling began with our pastor. But . . ." Betsy quickly sat back down grabbing Will's hand. "But to this day I'm still embarrassed how I flew out of my chair when he read Ephesians 5 and I heard, 'Submit all to your husband!'"

"Oh, how I shouted, 'You mean now I'll have to muck your stallion's stallh plus mine, and whatever else you want?' And what did you do? You wrapped me in your arms and whispered, 'No way.' And I relaxed."

"The pastor reassured me, and us, with Romans 12: 6-8, on how we each bring unique gifts to the marriage table as helpmates. And said it doesn't matter what nationality we are or if we're male or female, for we're all one in Christ. (Galatians 3:28)

"Hard times? With my exuberance and your calm, we had more than our share. But thank you, sweetheart, for your strength in bringing us back to center, our Christ. It's my anchor today."

"How we loved to ride. But you never faulted my abilities in front of our companions. Rather, you'd ask me equestrian questions valuing my opinion."

"And, when the culmination of our deep love arrived, little Ben provided another dimension to the word, 'helpmate!' Then honey, I confess, after Ben graduated from college, I overheard you preparing him for his first job with 1 Peter 2:18 how 'Whether married or a working single, in any capacity, we are submissive servants'. In my heart you stood 9' tall!"

Adjusting his blanket, a tear grazed his face. "And remember," she chuckled, "Our arguments over me learning the finances, investments and insurances? Thankfully you saw my reasoning. Now, as hard as it is, unlike some of my friends who don't know what bill-pay is, I'm prepared—for this next step."

"We had a good ride Will. With God holding the reins, our journey of love, whether up or down, never lost its stride. And—forever—my heart is yours until the end of time."

With the evening dusk, silence filled the room, and she held him.

* * * *

"What greater thing is there for two human souls, than to feel that they are joined for life—to strengthen each other in all labor, to rest on each other in all sorrow, to minister to each other in silent unspeakable memories at the moment of the last parting?"

- George Eliot
