"Who Am I?"

Ephesians 1:3-6

Speaking Today: Pastor Norm Schwab

What labels have been stuck on you? By kids in grade school? Parents? Boss? Maybe you've given yourself a few labels. Who do you give the right to shape your identity? The writer of Ephesians wants us to see our identity in Christ. Accept who God says we are. Let our identity in Christ then shape our behavior. Identity shapes behavior.

Who am I?

1. I am blessed. V.3

2. I am chosen v.4

3. I am adopted v.5

Why?

God wants us to be _____ by His grace and _____ Him. V.6

Next Step

Think about people or circumstances that at various times in your life, you have given them the right to shape your identity. OK, now...think about God. Invite Him to be the One who gives you your real identity. Picture God sitting across from you at coffee this next week. Who would He say you are?
